John Doe,

Petitioner,

and

STIPULATED ORDER TO TRANSFER CASE TO INACTIVE STATUS

Jane Doe,

Respondent.

WHEREAS, the above-entitled matter was commenced by service of a Summons and Petition upon Respondent on [DATE];

WHEREAS, the parties have since then agreed to make further efforts in exploration of the possibility of reconciliation, and to place these proceedings on inactive status while they do so;

WHEREFORE, the parties hereby stipulate to entry of the following Order:

Stipulated Order to Transfer Case to Inactive Status

1. The above-entitled matter is placed in inactive status until [insert date up to 1 year away].
2. No motion activity, court hearings, formal discovery, or other litigation in this case may take place during inactive status.
3. Either party may at any time have this matter removed from inactive status and placed back on the active calendar, by submitting a letter request and proposed order for same to the Court.
4. If not sooner activated by election of a party as provided above, this matter will be automatically dismissed without prejudice on [insert date up to 1 year away].

I declare under the penalty of perjury that everything I have stated in this document is true and correct. [Minn. Stat. § 358.116].
